BOY SCOUTS OF AMERICA

Golden Empire, Greater Yosemite, and Sequoia Councils
Central Valley College of Commissioner Service

Welcome to the 2010 Central Valley College of Commissioner Service!

As a current or prospective Commissioner, you are invited to come develop, hone and polish your Commissioner skills with us at the 2010 Central Valley College of Commissioner Service to be held Saturday, November 13, 2010 at the John B. Kilroy Community School, 350 Kilroy Road, Turlock, California, 95380 (see map). The College runs from 9:00 am to 4:50 pm, with check in beginning at 8:00am.

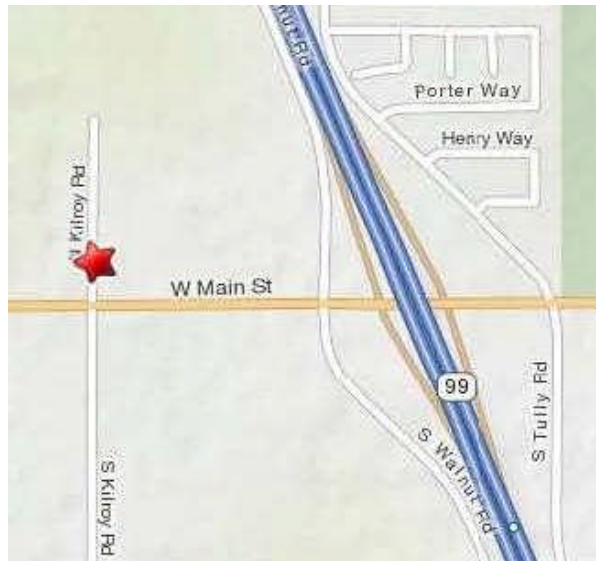

By attending the College, you will not only get a chance to receive training on variety of topic relative to effective Commissioner service and get updated on the latest information from National from an outstanding faculty and staff of experience Scouters, but you will also have a chance to meet and share your Scout experiences with fellow Scouters from throughout the Golden Empire, Greater Yosemite, and Sequoia Councils.

Courses will cover everything from basics of Commissioner service to more advanced topics of unit lifesaving, recruiting new Commissioners and the all important Webelos-to-Scout transition. Special sessions are available for Roundtable Commissioners and their staff to support the development, planning, and delivery of exciting and engaging roundtable programs.

Tuition for the College is $20.00 and includes lunch.

The 2010 Central Valley College of Commissioner Service registration will be through the Greater Yosemite Council.

Your attendance at the 2010 Central Valley College of Commissioner Service will assure that you and your fellow Commissioners will continue to have all the tools to provide top notch service to your respective Districts. We look forward to seeing you there!
