Sequoia Council Pow Wow
Saturday, January 22, 2011
Class Descriptions

All of the sessions listed below are open to any and all Cub Scout Leaders. The titles of the sessions will give you an idea of who may benefit the most by attending each session. If you are a brand new leader or one with years of experience we believe there is something for you. Please come out and join us for a great day of fun and learning. We look forward to sharing our ideas and knowledge with you.

1: Crafts Hands on experience in making crafts. We'll show you how easy it is to have your Cub Scouts make those crafts.	8: Autism Awareness Learn how ADD and ADHD fall under this category and what you need to know.
2: Costuming Relive the Days of Davy Crockett and other frontiersmen and women.	9: Pack Pizzazz! How to run successful Den and Pack meetings. Very helpful for both Den Leaders and the Cubmaster.
3: Archery Perfect your skill on our range	10: Pack Parents Wrangler Learn the lost art of engaging those parents that want to help but do not want to be Den Leaders.
4: Pathfinding The Modern Way Geocaching basics for Webelos. Finding the Treasure.	11: Derby Daze Build and race a pinewood derby car. Learn more about the Space Derby and the Raingutter Regatta.
5: Prairie Campfires, Yarns and Songs Learn how to make an artificial fire for your Pack and Den Meetings.	12: Roping Frontier Style Knots for all ages and how to use them.
6: Organizational Skills Development Learn more about the administration of the Pack along with the new Awards and Recognition Program for leaders.	13: Cub Grub Learn the art of Dutch Oven cooking frontier style!
7: The Final Round-up Webelos crossover and Arrow of Light ceremonies. Helping parents find the right Boy Scout troop.	14: Pioneers and Patriots Learn the proper way to display and use the American flag in Den and Pack Ceremonies.
	There will be special presentations made during the lunch period you will not want to miss. If you wish to share some items from your Den or Pack please bring them to the Pow Wow so we can display them on the Midway.
