What Your Dollars Support

The Sequoia Council was Chartered in 1919 by the Fresno Rotary Club. The Council currently serves more than 7,000 young people in Fresno, Madera, Kings and Tulare counties instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law, primarily Character Development, Citizenship Training and Physical Fitness.

The Council operates Camp Chawanakee on Shaver Lake, CA, the premier Boy Scout Camp in the Western Region of the United States. Nearly 5,000 Scouts and Leaders attend Camp Chawanakee each year from across the country.

Tournament proceeds help to provide camperships to needy Scouts in order for them to attend summer camp.
